

It has been brought to my attention that Sinclair
Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the presidential election.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when companies like
Sinclair
Broadcasting control
the airwaves, we get more of what's good
for their bottom line and less of what we need as citizens of the United States. It's more important that we see real people
from our own
communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter to everyone.

Sinclair's actions
show that we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you.
